adult classes

Our dance community at ADF's Scripps Studios welcomes adults of all levels and abilities to experience the joy of movement. Whether you're discovering dance for the first time, returning to dance, or wanting to fine-tune your technique as a professional, ADF has a class to fit your needs. To complement our weekly classes, we offer a range of workshops and masterclasses taught by renowned faculty and artists throughout the year. Check our website americandancefestival.org to find out about upcoming events.

rates

To make dance accessible, we offer affordable drop-in rates, class passes, student discounts, and work/study opportunities.

Adult Drop-In Class: $15

Adult 10-Class Pass: $120

College Student Drop-In Rate: $5

Contact our studios for information about work/study opportunities.

studio rentals

ADF Studio Rental

ADF's beautiful Samuel H. Scripps Studios are available for rentals. Our studios can accommodate your rehearsals, workshops, photoshoots, and all types of events.

ADF Studio Subsidy Program

ADF is thrilled to be able to offer the studio space subsidy program through the generous support of the Robert and Mercedes Eichholz Foundation. The ADF Studio Subsidy Program provides access to rehearsal space at affordable rates for dance artists contributing to the local creative landscape.

PMI

The Parkinson's Movement Initiative (PMI) was founded in 2017 by the American Dance Festival, NC Dance for Parkinson's, and Poe Wellness Solutions.

PMI offers consistent, weekly, cost-free movement classes to the PD community and their caregivers.

Visit americandancefestival.org/parkinsons-programs to register.

ADF's Parkinson's Movement Initiative is currently in partnership with the NC Dance for Parkinson's and is supported by the William R. Kenan, Jr. Charitable Trust, RTI International, and individual donors.
