

ADF Studios Subsidy Program Information

This program is generously funded by the Robert and Mercedes Eichholz Foundation. The ADF Studio Subsidy Program provides access to rehearsal space at affordable rates for dance artists contributing to the local creative landscape.

With a booming dance community comes a critical need for rehearsal space. As is the case in many communities, the cost of studio rental is the primary barrier that dance artists experience when diving into a creative process. ADF seeks to remove this barrier through the ADF Studio Subsidy Program, which will award grants in the form of subsidized studio space that will support over 40 artists and the creation of their works.

On a first come, first serve basis, artists will be able to receive access to up to 40 hours of subsidized rehearsal within a 3-month period at the rate of $10 per hour for Myers and $20 for Reinhart.

Studio Subsidy Guidelines

- Must complete application and liability waiver
- Applications will be processed on a rolling basis
- All reservations are subject to current space availability
- Studio subsidy hours must be used within a 3 month period
- Studio subsidies may not be used to offer paid classes
- You may not store props, costumes, supplies, etc. at the studios
- Repeat applicants are allowed, but ADF is committed to ensuring that a variety of artists benefit from this program
- Recipients who are granted a subsidy will be required to include the following credit in their performance programs for works created/reworked during period of subsidy:
 - [Name of dance work] was supported, in part, by ADF's Studio Subsidy Program through a generous gift from the Robert and Mercedes Eichholz Foundation.

Application Procedures

- Artists must write a short proposal about a new work they are making, a work they want to revisit after a premiere, or a creative idea they want to explore. On a first come, first serve basis, dance artists will be able to receive access to up to 40 hours of subsidized rehearsal within a 3-month period at the rate of $10 per hour for Myers and $20 for Reinhart. This will provide artists access to high-quality studios that would usually cost up to $40 an hour to rent.
- Applications may be submitted the following ways:
 - In Person: 721 Broad Street, Durham, NC 27705
Mon–Fri: 10:00a-6:00p (extended/weekend hours based on class schedule)
 - By Email: studios@americandancefestival.org
- After we receive your completed application and waiver, an ADF staff member will contact you within 5 business to notify you if space is available.
- Your reservation will not be complete until full payment is received or payment plan is confirmed
